

Taryn R. Hutchison

Author Bio

Taryn R. Hutchison served on staff with Campus Crusade for Christ from 1980-2001, ministering to college students in Minnesota, Delaware, Rhode Island, and California. From 1990-2000, Taryn served in Romania and Hungary, traveling throughout 18 countries in Eastern Europe and Russia.

Upon returning to the U.S., Taryn worked at Campus Crusade's Florida headquarters. She married at age 44, and for the past seven years has been an administrative assistant at Golden Gate Seminary near San Francisco.

She and her husband recently relocated to North Carolina. Taryn has two adult stepchildren, one baby granddaughter, and another on the way.

Taryn contributed to Chicken Soup for the Soul: Living Catholic Faith, and has had over 15 articles published. For more information, visit www.tarynhutchison.com

Book Recap

We Wait You - Waiting on God in Eastern Europe: This riveting journey behind the Iron Curtain during the decade following the 1989 revolutions introduces readers to Cold War informants, Russian mafia, and persecuted believers.

Narrated from the perspective of an American missionary who arrived in Romania just months after the Communist regime toppled, this story relives the historic events that changed Eastern Europe—and the life of one young woman.

Interview Questions:

1. You've traveled a lot. How many countries and states have you visited or lived in?
2. Your book's title, We Wait You, is intriguing. What is its significance?
3. Why did you decide to live in Romania immediately following the 1989 revolution?
4. So then, how did you "make it" in Romania?
5. What were some of the unexpected challenges you faced during the decade you lived in Eastern Europe?
6. Some hilarious things happened to you in Romania and Hungary, as well. What's your favorite humorous story?
7. You must have experienced extreme culture shock upon returning to the U.S. after living in Eastern Europe for a decade. What struck you most when you came home?
8. Your book dispels the misconception many have of missionaries as larger-than-life heroes. How would you describe the missionaries you worked with?

For more info, or to schedule an interview please contact:

Abigail Davidson | 360.802.9758
abigail@winepressgroup.com

